🔴 Les adverbess modifient un verbe, un adjectif ou un autre adverbe. En anglais, leur position dans la phrase est strictement réglementée.

1. Formation des adverbess

RÈGLE	ADJECTIF	ADVERBE
Général : + -ly	quick, slow, clear	quickly, slowly, clearly
Terminé en -le → -ly	simple, probable	simply, probably
Terminé en -y → -ily	happy, easy, heavy	happily, easily, heavily
Terminé en -ic → -ically	automatic, logic, basic	automatically, logically, basically
IRRÉGULIERS — à apprendre	good, fast, hard, late, early, high, low	well, fast, hard, late, early, high, low

⚠️ hard ≠ hardly / late ≠ lately / hard = avec énergie / hardly = à peine / late = en retard / lately = récemment.

2. Position des adverbess

TYPE D'ADVERBE	POSITION	EXEMPLES	RÈGLE
Fréquence	AVANT le verbe principal / APRÈS be	She always arrives early. / He is never late.	always, usually, often, sometimes, rarely, never, seldom
Manière	APRÈS le verbe (ou COD)	She wrote the report clearly. / He works hard.	quickly, carefully, well, hard, fast
Temps	Début ou FIN de phrase	Yesterday, she arrived. / She arrived yesterday.	yesterday, soon, already, recently
Degré	AVANT l'adjectif/adverbe	This is extremely important. / She works quite well.	very, quite, fairly, rather, extremely, enough
Commentaire	Début de phrase (+ virgule)	Unfortunately, the results were inconclusive.	unfortunately, surprisingly, clearly, obviously 🧠 Fréquence = collé au verbe (après be) / Manière = après l'action / Degré = avant l'adjectif.
