UNITÉ 4A — Past Perfect (I had done) & Past Perfect Continuous (I had been doing)

Le Past Perfect (had + participe passé) situe une action AVANT un autre moment du passé. Le Past Perfect Continuous insiste sur la durée avant ce moment.

- When I arrived, the meeting had already started.
- She was tired because she had been working all night.
- By the time we got there, they had already left.

Exercice 1 — Mets le verbe au Past Perfect ou Past Perfect Continuous.

1. When she arrived at the office, the meeting _____ (already / start).
→ _____
2. He was exhausted because he _____ (work) for ten hours straight.
→ _____
3. By the time we checked the results, the system _____ (crash) twice.
→ _____
4. I _____ (never / see) such a complex diagram before that project.
→ _____
5. They _____ (discuss) the issue for an hour before I joined the call.
→ _____
6. The technician fixed the machine after it _____ (break down) three times.
→ _____

UNITÉ 4B — have / have got & used to

HAVE GOT (surtout britannique, à l'oral) = possession, identique à HAVE. USED TO + base verbale = habitude ou état passé qui n'existe plus aujourd'hui.

- I have / I've got two brothers.
- Do you have / Have you got a car?
- I used to work in Paris, but now I work in Lille.
- She didn't use to like coffee.

Exercice 1 — Reformule avec HAVE GOT.

1. She has a new laptop.
→ _____
2. Do you have any questions?
→ _____
3. They don't have much time.
→ _____

Exercice 2 — Mets le verbe à la forme correcte avec USED TO.

1. He _____ (work) in a factory, but now he's an engineer.
→ _____
2. _____ you _____ (live) abroad?
→ _____
3. She _____ (not / like) her job, but now she loves it.
→ _____
4. We _____ (have) a smaller office before we moved.
→ _____

UNITÉ 4C — Future forms — going to, will, present continuous

BE GOING TO = décision déjà prise / prévision avec preuve. WILL = décision spontanée / prédiction sans preuve particulière. Present Continuous = projet déjà organisé (heure/lieu précis).

- I've decided — I'm going to apply for that job.
- Look at those clouds! It's going to rain.
- I'm meeting the client at 3 PM tomorrow. (déjà organisé)
- I think I'll call him later. (décision spontanée)

Exercice 1 — Choisis la forme correcte (going to / will / present continuous).
