🔴 Le discours indirect rapporte ce que quelqu'un a dit sans utiliser ses mots exacts. Temps, pronoms et repères temporels changent.

1. Concordance des temps (Backshift)

DISCOURS DIRECT	DISCOURS INDIRECT

Present Continuous : 'I am working'	Past Continuous : he was working
Past Simple : 'I worked'	Past Perfect : he had worked Present Perfect : 'I have worked'	Past Perfect : he had worked
Will : 'I will come'	Would : he would come
Can : 'I can help'	Could : he could help
Must : 'I must go'	Had to : he had to go
May : 'I may be late'	Might : he might be late

2. Changements de repères temporels

yesterday	the day before / the previous day
tomorrow	the next day / the following day
now	then / at that moment
here	there
this / these	that / those last week	the week before
next week	the following week

3. Questions indirectes

Structure	Anglais	Note
Yes/No	She asked if/whether he was coming.	if/whether — pas d'inversion — pas de ?
Wh-	He asked where she lived.	wh- + ordre sujet-verbe (pas d'inversion) — pas de ?

⚠ JAMAIS de point d'interrogation dans une question indirecte. Pas d'auxiliaire Do/Does/Did.

4. Say vs Tell

Structure	Anglais	Note
SAY	She said (that)... / He said to me that...	Say ne prend PAS d'objet personnel direct
TELL	She told me... / He told us...	Tell DOIT avoir un objet personnel (me, him, us...)

⚠ 'She said me...' = FAUX. 'She told that...' = FAUX. 'She told me...' = CORRECT.

🧠 Le temps recule d'un cran : Présent → Passé / Passé → Past Perfect / Will → Would / Can → Could.
