

Polytech Lille · Remédiation Anglais PEIP2

WH-Questions

200 Exercices + Corrections

10 exercices de 20 phrases · Tous les temps · Corrigé complet

marc.vasseur@polytech-lille.fr

Rappel — La formule WH-Question

Type	Formule	Exemple
Objet / Complément	WH + aux + sujet + base + ?	Where does she work?
Who / What = SUJET	WH + verbe conjugué + ?	Who runs the meeting?
BE	WH + BE + sujet + ?	Where is he?
Temps composés	WH + aux + sujet + participe + ?	What has he done?

■ Who / What = SUJET : pas d'auxiliaire !

X Question à la française (FAUX)	✓ Question correcte (JUSTE)
"You are coming tomorrow?"	"Are you coming tomorrow?"
"She did go where?"	"Where did she go?"

Exercice 1 — Pose la question sur le mot souligné

Tous les temps sont mélangés. Formule : WH + aux + sujet + base + ... ?

1. He had already submitted his application when the deadline passed.

→ _____

2. They are going to expand into three new markets.

→ _____

3. She has worked here for five years.

→ _____

4. The company is going to launch a new product.

→ _____

5. They had already tested three prototypes by that point.

→ _____

6. A specialist has diagnosed the issue.

→ _____

7. He will be away for two weeks.

→ _____

8. She had been applying for promotions because she felt underpaid.

→ _____

9. She has worked here since she graduated.

→ _____

10. She works in London.

→ _____

11. He had been teaching the course for a decade before retiring.

→ _____

12. She failed the exam because she didn't study.

→ _____

13. She is studying with her colleague.

→ _____

14. He will have learned the new software by next week.

→ _____

15. She calls her parents every Sunday.

→ _____

16. She was consulting an expert because the problem was complex.

→ _____

17. He missed the meeting because his train was delayed.

→ _____

18. They are going to partner with a German firm.

→ _____

19. She is going to present her thesis next week.

→ _____

20. She is collaborating with the Berlin team.

→ _____

Exercice 2 — Pose la question sur le mot souligné

Tous les temps sont mélangés. Formule : WH + aux + sujet + base + ... ?

1. She is going to work part-time because of her studies.
→ _____
2. She is going to defend her PhD in June.
→ _____
3. She finishes work at 6 PM.
→ _____
4. She has presented at four international conferences.
→ _____
5. She is performing very well in her new role.
→ _____
6. He has applied for a research grant.
→ _____
7. She had been working remotely since the lockdown.
→ _____
8. She presented the findings at the annual conference.
→ _____
9. She had lived in three countries before settling in France.
→ _____
10. She was revising the code because there were several errors.
→ _____
11. The technician had repaired the machine before the meeting.
→ _____
12. They flew to Tokyo last summer.
→ _____
13. He will be giving a keynote at this time next week.
→ _____
14. He works in this department because he loves robotics.
→ _____
15. They are going to hire a data scientist.
→ _____
16. He was training the new recruits all week.
→ _____
17. She had completed the analysis before the presentation started.
→ _____
18. They had been running the pilot in two test cities.
→ _____
19. She has quit because of the working conditions.
→ _____
20. The committee had rejected the proposal.
→ _____

Exercice 3 — Pose la question sur le mot souligné

Tous les temps sont mélangés. Formule : WH + aux + sujet + base + ... ?

1. She is reading a technical report.

→ _____

2. The director approved the budget last quarter.

→ _____

3. She had been managing the project alone for months.

→ _____

4. He will spend three months on the new project.

→ _____

5. They moved to a bigger office last spring.

→ _____

6. He has reduced costs by thirty per cent.

→ _____

7. He has just finished the analysis.

→ _____

8. They were waiting outside the conference room.

→ _____

9. They had been testing the software in three different environments.

→ _____

10. She will have gained five years of experience by 2028.

→ _____

11. He had been developing the algorithm for six months before it worked.

→ _____

12. He will have defended his thesis by next spring.

→ _____

13. The algorithm sorts the data automatically.

→ _____

14. She will be chairing the conference this time next Tuesday.

→ _____

15. She will be coordinating the event from Paris.

→ _____

16. They will have launched the product in twenty markets by 2030.

→ _____

17. He had trained in Germany before joining the French team.

→ _____

18. They had been waiting for two hours when the director arrived.

→ _____

19. She had already left when we arrived.

→ _____

20. He was commuting for two hours every day back then.

→ _____

Exercice 4 — Pose la question sur le mot souligné

Tous les temps sont mélangés. Formule : WH + aux + sujet + base + ... ?

1. They leave at 8 AM.

→ _____

2. She drove two hundred kilometres to reach the site.

→ _____

3. She had moved to Lyon because of a job offer.

→ _____

4. He earns sixty thousand euros a year.

→ _____

5. He attended five conferences last year.

→ _____

6. She was crying because the experiment failed.

→ _____

7. The meeting lasted three hours.

→ _____

8. He is working with the R&D; team on this issue.

→ _____

9. They have relocated the headquarters to Bordeaux.

→ _____

10. The board is going to review the strategy.

→ _____

11. She will have finished the report by Friday.

→ _____

12. The intern will be running the experiment.

→ _____

13. They were conducting interviews in three separate rooms.

→ _____

14. She speaks three languages.

→ _____

15. He will have submitted his thesis by next month.

→ _____

16. She will have visited twenty countries by the time she retires.

→ _____

17. They will have signed contracts with forty clients by year-end.

→ _____

18. She had been working for twelve hours when she finally stopped.

→ _____

19. He is flying to Berlin tomorrow.

→ _____

20. The new intern set up the entire network.

→ _____

Exercice 5 — Pose la question sur le mot souligné

Tous les temps sont mélangés. Formule : WH + aux + sujet + base + ... ?

1. The CEO will announce the decision.
→ _____
2. She will be presenting her findings at 10 AM tomorrow.
→ _____
3. They are relocating to the new campus next month.
→ _____
4. They had been experimenting with the formula since January.
→ _____
5. He bought a new laptop three days ago.
→ _____
6. She has been promoted three times.
→ _____
7. He is running so fast because he is late.
→ _____
8. The intern reports to the head of department.
→ _____
9. She will collaborate with the Paris team next year.
→ _____
10. She will present her results tomorrow.
→ _____
11. The team will have completed three prototypes by December.
→ _____
12. He worked there for six months.
→ _____
13. She is presenting her project right now.
→ _____
14. They will be analysing the data for the next three hours.
→ _____
15. The lab opens at seven thirty.
→ _____
16. The reactor operates at extremely high temperatures.
→ _____
17. He earns more because he has more experience.
→ _____
18. He has been abroad three times this year.
→ _____
19. They are working in the lab at the moment.
→ _____
20. She will have saved enough for a flat by 2026.
→ _____

Exercice 6 — Pose la question sur le mot souligné

Tous les temps sont mélangés. Formule : WH + aux + sujet + base + ... ?

1. They had exceeded their targets because of the new strategy.
→ _____
2. He has improved his score by fifteen points.
→ _____
3. She had been training the new recruits all afternoon.
→ _____
4. She will leave because the project is cancelled.
→ _____
5. He is going to pitch the idea to investors.
→ _____
6. He had been negotiating with suppliers for weeks before reaching a deal.
→ _____
7. They were reviewing the budget at midnight.
→ _____
8. He had sent the report before the deadline.
→ _____
9. He had been studying in Lyon before he transferred to Lille.
→ _____
10. She types ninety words per minute.
→ _____
11. She published her results in an international journal.
→ _____
12. She is going to quit because of the workload.
→ _____
13. They will be relocating the servers during the night.
→ _____
14. They have already submitted three reports.
→ _____
15. She left the office at 5 PM yesterday.
→ _____
16. She was presenting her findings at that moment.
→ _____
17. She is downloading the new software version.
→ _____
18. She had worked there for ten years before she retired.
→ _____
19. He drives to work every day.
→ _____
20. She will travel six thousand kilometres for the project.
→ _____

Exercice 7 — Pose la question sur le mot souligné

Tous les temps sont mélangés. Formule : WH + aux + sujet + base + ... ?

1. He will be working in the new lab next month.
→ _____
2. They are meeting at 3 PM.
→ _____
3. He is going to lead the international division.
→ _____
4. A new director has taken over the department.
→ _____
5. The report is twenty pages long.
→ _____
6. He submitted the application two weeks ago.
→ _____
7. She completed the task in record time.
→ _____
8. They are launching the campaign in six countries.
→ _____
9. He had studied French before he moved to Paris.
→ _____
10. The engineer solved the problem.
→ _____
11. He was presenting when the projector broke down.
→ _____
12. The committee will elect a new chairperson.
→ _____
13. The CEO chairs the weekly meeting.
→ _____
14. He will be supervising twelve interns next semester.
→ _____
15. He will be presenting to the board at 2 PM.
→ _____
16. She explained the concept very clearly.
→ _____
17. The director runs the meeting.
→ _____
18. He is interviewing candidates all morning.
→ _____
19. The professor explains the theory clearly.
→ _____
20. She had been living alone because her flatmate had moved out.
→ _____

Exercice 8 — Pose la question sur le mot souligné

Tous les temps sont mélangés. Formule : WH + aux + sujet + base + ... ?

1. They will have worked together for ten years by 2030.

→ _____

2. They have cut their carbon emissions by twenty per cent.

→ _____

3. He is going to start the internship in September.

→ _____

4. She learned Python in 2021.

→ _____

5. She will relocate to the Singapore office next autumn.

→ _____

6. He wrote the report last night.

→ _____

7. He will work in the Berlin office next year.

→ _____

8. She contacts the supplier twice a week.

→ _____

9. They had been arguing about the methodology for weeks.

→ _____

10. She was working in the lab at 9 PM.

→ _____

11. He will have completed the audit by next Thursday.

→ _____

12. The board has approved the new strategy.

→ _____

13. He is talking to the client.

→ _____

14. She will have written four research papers by graduation.

→ _____

15. They will hire twenty new engineers.

→ _____

16. They were discussing the results for three hours.

→ _____

17. They are going to redesign the interface completely.

→ _____

18. He studies engineering.

→ _____

19. The engineer had been running tests all morning.

→ _____

20. She has lived in Lille since 2019.

→ _____

Exercice 9 — Pose la question sur le mot souligné

Tous les temps sont mélangés. Formule : WH + aux + sujet + base + ... ?

1. She reads the reports carefully.

→ _____

2. He has reduced the processing time significantly.

→ _____

3. They had finished the project by Monday.

→ _____

4. She will be negotiating the contract all morning.

→ _____

5. The lab is going to purchase five new spectrometers.

→ _____

6. She will be managing the project because the director is away.

→ _____

7. She is leaving because she has an appointment.

→ _____

8. They had prepared extensively because the audit was important.

→ _____

9. He had been trying to fix the bug for three days.

→ _____

10. He had been collaborating with the Lyon team.

→ _____

11. He has transferred to the Bordeaux office.

→ _____

12. She will be working from home this time tomorrow.

→ _____

13. She sent fifty emails yesterday.

→ _____

14. The technician was repairing the machine.

→ _____

15. She will manage the international division.

→ _____

16. He will finish the analysis soon.

→ _____

17. He was travelling to Lyon when he heard the news.

→ _____

18. She had been commuting four hours a day because she moved.

→ _____

19. She is revising her presentation because the client changed the brief.

→ _____

20. He is going to study for six more months.

→ _____

Exercice 10 — Pose la question sur le mot souligné

Tous les temps sont mélangés. Formule : WH + aux + sujet + base + ... ?

1. She had been studying data science intensively before the interview.

→ _____

2. They will be testing the system all day on Friday.

→ _____

3. She is attending a seminar in Lyon this week.

→ _____

4. The project will have run for three years by then.

→ _____

5. She will have moved to the new office by January.

→ _____

6. She will leave because the contract was not renewed.

→ _____

7. She had published six papers before defending her thesis.

→ _____

8. He will have worked for the company for twenty years by then.

→ _____

9. They will cut costs significantly next quarter.

→ _____

10. They will be piloting the new system in Lyon.

→ _____

11. They have moved to the new office.

→ _____

12. The team is testing the new prototype.

→ _____

13. They met the director in Paris.

→ _____

14. He has visited twelve countries.

→ _____

15. She was debugging the code when her computer crashed.

→ _____

16. She resigned because of personal reasons.

→ _____

17. She commutes by train every morning.

→ _____

18. He was reading a report when the alarm went off.

→ _____

19. He will probably retire in five years.

→ _____

20. He is going to move to a new flat.

→ _____

CORRECTIONS

Correction — Exercice 1

N°	Phrase (mot souligné)	Question correcte
1	He had already submitted [his application] when the deadl...	What had he already submitted when the deadline passed?
2	They are going to expand into [three new markets].	How many markets are they going to expand into?
3	She has worked here [for five years].	How long has she worked here?
4	[The company] is going to launch a new product.	Who is going to launch a new product? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
5	They had already tested [three prototypes] by that point.	How many prototypes had they already tested?
6	[A specialist] has diagnosed the issue.	Who has diagnosed the issue? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
7	He will be away [for two weeks].	How long will he be away?
8	She had been applying for promotions [because she felt un...	Why had she been applying for promotions?
9	She has worked here [since she graduated].	Since when has she worked here?
10	She works [in London].	Where does she work?
11	He had been teaching the course [for a decade] before ret...	How long had he been teaching the course before retiring?
12	She failed the exam [because she didn't study].	Why did she fail the exam?
13	She is studying [with her colleague].	Who is she studying with?
14	He will have learned [the new software] by next week.	What will he have learned by next week?
15	She calls her parents [every Sunday].	How often does she call her parents?
16	She was consulting an expert [because the problem was com...	Why was she consulting an expert?
17	He missed the meeting [because his train was delayed].	Why did he miss the meeting?
18	They are going to partner with [a German firm].	Who are they going to partner with?
19	She is going to present her thesis [next week].	When is she going to present her thesis?
20	She is collaborating with [the Berlin team].	Who is she collaborating with?

Correction — Exercise 2

N°	Phrase (mot souligné)	Question correcte
1	She is going to work part-time [because of her studies].	Why is she going to work part-time?
2	She is going to defend her PhD [in June].	When is she going to defend her PhD?
3	She finishes work [at 6 PM].	When does she finish work?
4	She has presented at [four international conferences].	How many conferences has she presented at?
5	She is performing [very well] in her new role.	How is she performing in her new role?
6	He has applied for [a research grant].	What has he applied for?
7	She had been working remotely [since the lockdown].	Since when had she been working remotely?
8	She presented the findings [at the annual conference].	Where did she present the findings?
9	She had lived in [three countries] before settling in Fra...	How many countries had she lived in before settling in France?
10	She was revising the code [because there were several err...	Why was she revising the code?
11	[The technician] had repaired the machine before the meet...	Who had repaired the machine before the meeting? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
12	They flew [to Tokyo] last summer.	Where did they fly last summer?
13	He will be giving [a keynote] at this time next week.	What will he be giving at this time next week?
14	He works in this department [because he loves robotics].	Why does he work in this department?
15	They are going to hire [a data scientist].	What are they going to hire?
16	He was training the new recruits [all week].	How long was he training the new recruits?
17	She had completed the analysis [before the presentation s...	When had she completed the analysis?
18	They had been running the pilot [in two test cities].	Where had they been running the pilot?
19	She has quit [because of the working conditions].	Why has she quit?
20	[The committee] had rejected the proposal.	Who had rejected the proposal? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)

Correction — Exercise 3

N°	Phrase (mot souligné)	Question correcte
1	She is reading [a technical report].	What is she reading?
2	[The director] approved the budget last quarter.	Who approved the budget last quarter? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
3	She had been managing the project [alone] for months.	How had she been managing the project?
4	He will spend [three months] on the new project.	How long will he spend on the new project?
5	They moved [to a bigger office] last spring.	Where did they move last spring?
6	He has reduced costs [by thirty per cent].	By how much has he reduced costs?
7	He has just finished [the analysis].	What has he just finished?
8	They were waiting [outside the conference room].	Where were they waiting?
9	They had been testing the software in [three different en...]	In how many environments had they been testing the software?
10	She will have gained [five years of experience] by 2028.	How much experience will she have gained by 2028?
11	He had been developing the algorithm [for six months] bef...	How long had he been developing the algorithm before it worked?
12	He will have defended his thesis [by next spring].	When will he have defended his thesis?
13	[The algorithm] sorts the data automatically.	What sorts the data automatically? (What = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
14	She will be chairing the conference [this time next Tuesd...]	When will she be chairing the conference?
15	She will be coordinating the event [from Paris].	Where will she be coordinating the event from?
16	They will have launched the product [in twenty markets] b...	In how many markets will they have launched the product by 2030?
17	He had trained [in Germany] before joining the French team.	Where had he trained before joining the French team?
18	They had been waiting [for two hours] when the director a...	How long had they been waiting when the director arrived?
19	She had already left [when we arrived].	When had she already left?
20	He was commuting [for two hours] every day back then.	How long was he commuting every day back then?

Correction — Exercice 4

N°	Phrase (mot souligné)	Question correcte
1	They leave [at 8 AM].	When do they leave?
2	She drove [two hundred kilometres] to reach the site.	How far did she drive to reach the site?
3	She had moved to Lyon [because of a job offer].	Why had she moved to Lyon?
4	He earns [sixty thousand euros] a year.	How much does he earn a year?
5	He attended [five conferences] last year.	How many conferences did he attend last year?
6	She was crying [because the experiment failed].	Why was she crying?
7	The meeting lasted [three hours].	How long did the meeting last?
8	He is working with [the R&D; team] on this issue.	Who is he working with on this issue?
9	They have relocated the headquarters [to Bordeaux].	Where have they relocated the headquarters?
10	[The board] is going to review the strategy.	Who is going to review the strategy? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
11	She will have finished the report [by Friday].	When will she have finished the report?
12	[The intern] will be running the experiment.	Who will be running the experiment? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
13	They were conducting interviews [in three separate rooms].	Where were they conducting interviews?
14	She speaks [three languages].	How many languages does she speak?
15	He will have submitted [his thesis] by next month.	What will he have submitted by next month?
16	She will have visited [twenty countries] by the time she ...	How many countries will she have visited by the time she retires?
17	They will have signed contracts with [forty clients] by y...	How many clients will they have signed contracts with by year-end?
18	She had been working [for twelve hours] when she finally ...	How long had she been working when she finally stopped?
19	He is flying [to Berlin] tomorrow.	Where is he flying tomorrow?
20	[The new intern] set up the entire network.	Who set up the entire network? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)

Correction — Exercice 5

N°	Phrase (mot souligné)	Question correcte
1	[The CEO] will announce the decision.	Who will announce the decision? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
2	She will be presenting her findings [at 10 AM tomorrow].	When will she be presenting her findings?
3	They are relocating to the new campus [next month].	When are they relocating to the new campus?
4	They had been experimenting with the formula [since Janua...]	Since when had they been experimenting with the formula?
5	He bought a new laptop [three days ago].	When did he buy a new laptop?
6	She has been promoted [three times].	How many times has she been promoted?
7	He is running so fast [because he is late].	Why is he running so fast?
8	The intern reports [to the head of department].	Who does the intern report to?
9	She will collaborate [with the Paris team] next year.	Who will she collaborate with next year?
10	She will present her results [tomorrow].	When will she present her results?
11	[The team] will have completed three prototypes by December.	Who will have completed three prototypes by December? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
12	He worked there [for six months].	How long did he work there?
13	She is presenting [her project] right now.	What is she presenting?
14	They will be analysing the data [for the next three hours].	How long will they be analysing the data?
15	The lab opens [at seven thirty].	When does the lab open?
16	The reactor operates [at extremely high temperatures].	How does the reactor operate?
17	He earns more [because he has more experience].	Why does he earn more?
18	He has been abroad [three times] this year.	How many times has he been abroad this year?
19	They are working [in the lab] at the moment.	Where are they working?
20	She will have saved enough [for a flat] by 2026.	What will she have saved enough for by 2026?

Correction — Exercise 6

N°	Phrase (mot souligné)	Question correcte
1	They had exceeded their targets [because of the new strat...	Why had they exceeded their targets?
2	He has improved his score [by fifteen points].	By how much has he improved his score?
3	She had been training [the new recruits] all afternoon.	Who had she been training all afternoon?
4	She will leave [because the project is cancelled].	Why will she leave?
5	He is going to pitch [the idea] to investors.	What is he going to pitch to investors?
6	He had been negotiating with suppliers [for weeks] before...	How long had he been negotiating with suppliers?
7	They were reviewing the budget [at midnight].	When were they reviewing the budget?
8	He had sent the report [before the deadline].	When had he sent the report?
9	He had been studying [in Lyon] before he transferred to L...	Where had he been studying before he transferred?
10	She types [ninety words per minute].	How fast does she type?
11	She published her results [in an international journal].	Where did she publish her results?
12	She is going to quit [because of the workload].	Why is she going to quit?
13	They will be relocating the servers [during the night].	When will they be relocating the servers?
14	They have already submitted [three reports].	How many reports have they already submitted?
15	She left the office [at 5 PM yesterday].	When did she leave the office?
16	She was presenting [her findings] at that moment.	What was she presenting at that moment?
17	She is downloading [the new software version].	What is she downloading?
18	She had worked there [for ten years] before she retired.	How long had she worked there before she retired?
19	He drives [to work] every day.	Where does he drive every day?
20	She will travel [six thousand kilometres] for the project.	How far will she travel for the project?

Correction — Exercice 7

N°	Phrase (mot souligné)	Question correcte
1	He will be working [in the new lab] next month.	Where will he be working next month?
2	They are meeting [at 3 PM].	When are they meeting?
3	He is going to lead [the international division].	What is he going to lead?
4	[A new director] has taken over the department.	Who has taken over the department? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
5	The report is [twenty pages long].	How long is the report?
6	He submitted the application [two weeks ago].	When did he submit the application?
7	She completed the task [in record time].	How quickly did she complete the task?
8	They are launching the campaign in [six countries].	In how many countries are they launching the campaign?
9	He had studied [French] before he moved to Paris.	What had he studied before he moved to Paris?
10	[The engineer] solved the problem.	Who solved the problem? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
11	He was presenting [when the projector broke down].	When was he presenting?
12	[The committee] will elect a new chairperson.	Who will elect a new chairperson? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
13	[The CEO] chairs the weekly meeting.	Who chairs the weekly meeting? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
14	He will be supervising [twelve interns] next semester.	How many interns will he be supervising next semester?
15	He will be presenting [to the board] at 2 PM.	Who will he be presenting to at 2 PM?
16	She explained the concept [very clearly].	How did she explain the concept?
17	[The director] runs the meeting.	Who runs the meeting? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
18	He is interviewing candidates [all morning].	How long is he interviewing candidates?
19	The professor explains the theory [clearly].	How does the professor explain the theory?
20	She had been living alone [because her flatmate had moved...]	Why had she been living alone?

Correction — Exercice 8

N°	Phrase (mot souligné)	Question correcte
1	They will have worked together [for ten years] by 2030.	How long will they have worked together by 2030?
2	They have cut their carbon emissions [by twenty per cent].	By how much have they cut their carbon emissions?
3	He is going to start the internship [in September].	When is he going to start the internship?
4	She learned Python [in 2021].	When did she learn Python?
5	She will relocate [to the Singapore office] next autumn.	Where will she relocate next autumn?
6	He wrote [the report] last night.	What did he write last night?
7	He will work [in the Berlin office] next year.	Where will he work next year?
8	She contacts the supplier [twice a week].	How often does she contact the supplier?
9	They had been arguing [about the methodology] for weeks.	What had they been arguing about for weeks?
10	She was working [in the lab] at 9 PM.	Where was she working at 9 PM?
11	He will have completed [the audit] by next Thursday.	What will he have completed by next Thursday?
12	[The board] has approved the new strategy.	Who has approved the new strategy? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
13	He is talking to [the client].	Who is he talking to?
14	She will have written [four research papers] by graduation.	How many papers will she have written by graduation?
15	They will hire [twenty new engineers].	How many engineers will they hire?
16	They were discussing the results [for three hours].	How long were they discussing the results?
17	They are going to redesign [the interface] completely.	What are they going to redesign?
18	He studies [engineering].	What does he study?
19	[The engineer] had been running tests all morning.	Who had been running tests all morning? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
20	She has lived in Lille [since 2019].	Since when has she lived in Lille?

Correction — Exercice 9

N°	Phrase (mot souligné)	Question correcte
1	She reads the reports [carefully].	How does she read the reports?
2	He has reduced the processing time [significantly].	How has he reduced the processing time?
3	They had finished the project [by Monday].	When had they finished the project?
4	She will be negotiating the contract [all morning].	How long will she be negotiating the contract?
5	The lab is going to purchase [five new spectrometers].	How many spectrometers is the lab going to purchase?
6	She will be managing the project [because the director is...]	Why will she be managing the project?
7	She is leaving [because she has an appointment].	Why is she leaving?
8	They had prepared extensively [because the audit was impo...]	Why had they prepared extensively?
9	He had been trying to fix the bug [for three days].	How long had he been trying to fix the bug?
10	He had been collaborating with [the Lyon team].	Who had he been collaborating with?
11	He has transferred [to the Bordeaux office].	Where has he transferred?
12	She will be working [from home] this time tomorrow.	Where will she be working this time tomorrow?
13	She sent [fifty emails] yesterday.	How many emails did she send yesterday?
14	[The technician] was repairing the machine.	Who was repairing the machine? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
15	She will manage [the international division].	What will she manage?
16	He will finish the analysis [soon].	When will he finish the analysis?
17	He was travelling [to Lyon] when he heard the news.	Where was he travelling when he heard the news?
18	She had been commuting four hours a day [because she moved].	Why had she been commuting four hours a day?
19	She is revising her presentation [because the client chan...]	Why is she revising her presentation?
20	He is going to study [for six more months].	How long is he going to study?

Correction — Exercice 10

N°	Phrase (mot souligné)	Question correcte
1	She had been studying data science [intensively] before t...	How had she been studying data science before the interview?
2	They will be testing the system [all day on Friday].	When will they be testing the system?
3	She is attending a seminar [in Lyon] this week.	Where is she attending a seminar this week?
4	The project will have run [for three years] by then.	How long will the project have run by then?
5	She will have moved to the new office [by January].	When will she have moved to the new office?
6	She will leave [because the contract was not renewed].	Why will she leave?
7	She had published [six papers] before defending her thesis.	How many papers had she published before defending her thesis?
8	He will have worked for the company [for twenty years] by...	How long will he have worked for the company by then?
9	They will cut costs [significantly] next quarter.	How will they cut costs next quarter?
10	They will be piloting the new system [in Lyon].	Where will they be piloting the new system?
11	They have moved [to the new office].	Where have they moved?
12	[The team] is testing the new prototype.	Who is testing the new prototype? (Who = sujet → pas d'auxiliaire)
13	They met the director [in Paris].	Where did they meet the director?
14	He has visited [twelve countries].	How many countries has he visited?
15	She was debugging [the code] when her computer crashed.	What was she debugging when her computer crashed?
16	She resigned [because of personal reasons].	Why did she resign?
17	She commutes [by train] every morning.	How does she commute every morning?
18	He was reading [a report] when the alarm went off.	What was he reading when the alarm went off?
19	He will probably retire [in five years].	When will he probably retire?
20	He is going to move [to a new flat].	Where is he going to move?