

KEY

Last summer I was cycling (CYCLE) in the rain along a country road in France with my best friend Tom. We decided (DECIDE) to go on a cycling holiday in northern France. Neither of us had been (BE) to France before, but we learned (LEARN) a little bit of French at school and we managed (MANAGE) to brush up on the basics.

Now we were wondering (WONDER) if we had made (MAKE) the right decision. We planned / had planned/had been planning (PLAN) our route carefully for months, but we forgot (FORGET) one important factor: the weather. It had been raining (RAIN) heavily since our arrival and that night we ended up (END UP) sleeping in the waiting room at a railway station.

When we were riding (RIDE) down a steep hill the next morning my bike skidded (SKID) on the wet road and I fell (FALL) off. I realised (REALISE) immediately that I had broken (BREAK) my left arm and after a visit to the hospital I caught (CATCH) the next train to Calais for the ferry home.

Unfortunately, my parents had not expected/had not been expecting/ were not expecting (NOT EXPECT) me home for a fortnight, and had gone (GO) away on holiday. So I spent (SPEND) a miserable couple of weeks alone, reading books about cycling in bad weather.
